

CROWN CAPITAL PARTNERS INC.

AUDIT & RISK COMMITTEE CHARTER

A. RESPONSIBILITY

The Audit & Risk Committee (the “Committee”) is responsible for assisting the board of directors (the “Board”) of Crown Capital Partners Inc. (the “Corporation”) in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities in relation to:

- (a) the integrity of the Corporation’s financial statements and certain disclosure documents provided by the Corporation to its shareholders, the public and others;
- (b) the Corporation’s compliance with legal and regulatory requirements related to financial reporting;
- (c) the qualifications, independence and performance of the Corporation’s external auditor (the “Auditor”);
- (d) the design, implementation and maintenance of internal controls and disclosure controls;
- (e) the identification and assessment of risks and the monitoring of the effectiveness of risk management practices; and
- (f) performing the additional duties set out in this Charter or otherwise delegated to the Committee by the Board.

Although the Committee has the powers and responsibilities set forth in this mandate, the role of the Committee is oversight. It is not the duty of the Committee to conduct audits or to determine that the Corporation’s financial statements are complete, accurate and in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards. The Auditor is responsible for planning and carrying out, in accordance with professional standards, an audit of the Corporation's annual financial statements and reviewing the Corporation’s quarterly financial information. Management of the Corporation is responsible for the preparation, presentation and integrity of the financial statements and for maintaining appropriate accounting and financial reporting principles, policies and internal controls and procedures designed to ensure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations.

B. MEMBERS

The Board must appoint a minimum of three directors to be members of the Committee. The members of the Committee will be selected by the Board on the recommendation of the Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee (the “CCG Committee”).

All of the members of the Committee will be “independent directors” (“Independent Directors”) as defined in National Instrument 52-110 — Audit Committees, as amended from time to time (“NI 52-110”). In addition, every member of the Committee will be “financially literate” as defined in NI 52-110.

C. CHAIRPERSON

Each year, the Board will, on the recommendation of the CCG Committee, appoint one member to be chairperson (the “Committee Chair”). If, in any year, the Board does not appoint a Committee Chair, the incumbent Committee Chair will continue in office until a successor is appointed.

D. DUTIES

The Committee is responsible for performing the duties set out below as well as any other duties that are otherwise required by law or delegated to the Committee by the Board.

1. Appointment and Review of the External Auditor

The Auditor is ultimately accountable to the Committee and reports directly to the Committee. Accordingly, the Committee will evaluate and be responsible for the Corporation’s relationship with the Auditor and will ensure an open and transparent relationship between the Auditor and the Committee. Specifically, the Committee will:

- (a) select, evaluate and recommend to the Board the Auditor to be proposed for appointment or reappointment, as the case may be, by the shareholders;
- (b) review and approve the Auditor’s engagement letter;
- (c) determine the Auditor’s fee;
- (d) review the independence, experience, qualifications and performance of the Auditor, including the engagement and lead partners, in recommending its appointment or reappointment, including considering whether the Auditor’s provision of any permitted non-audit services is compatible with maintaining its independence;
- (e) resolve any disagreements between senior management and the Auditor regarding financial reporting;
- (f) at least annually, obtain and review a report by the Auditor describing:
 - (i) the Auditor’s internal quality-control procedures, including with regard to safeguarding confidential information;
 - (ii) any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality control review, or peer review, of the Auditor, or review by any independent oversight body, such as the Canadian Public Accountability Board, or governmental or professional authorities within the preceding five years respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the Auditor, and the steps taken to deal with any issues raised in any such review; and
- (g) where appropriate, recommend to the Board termination of the Auditor.

2. Confirmation of the Auditor’s Independence

At least annually, and before the Auditor issues its report on the annual financial statements, the Committee will:

- (a) review a formal written statement from the Auditor describing all of its relationships with the Corporation;
- (b) discuss with the Auditor any relationships or services that may affect its objectivity and independence;
- (c) obtain written confirmation from the Auditor that it is objective within the meaning of the Rules of Professional Conduct/Code of Ethics adopted by the provincial institute or order of Chartered Professional Accountants to which it belongs and is an independent public accountant within the meaning of the Independence Standards of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Professional Accountants; and
- (d) confirm that the Auditor has complied with applicable rules, if any, with respect to the rotation of certain members of the audit engagement team.

3. Pre-Approval of Non-Audit Services

The Committee will pre-approve the appointment of the Auditor for any non-audit service to be provided to the Corporation. Before the appointment of the Auditor for any non-audit service, the Committee will consider the compatibility of the service with the Auditor's independence. The Committee may pre-approve the appointment of the Auditor for any non-audit services by adopting specific policies and procedures, from time to time, for the engagement of the Auditor for non-audit services. Such policies and procedures will be detailed as to the particular service, and the Committee must be informed of each service, and the procedures may not include delegation of the Committee's responsibilities to management. The Committee may delegate to one or more members the authority to pre-approve the appointment of the Auditor for any non-audit service to the extent permitted by applicable law provided that any pre-approvals granted pursuant to such delegation shall be reported to the full Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

4. Communications with the Auditor

The Committee will communicate directly with the Auditor and will meet privately with the Auditor at least quarterly to discuss items of interest to the Committee or the Auditor, including:

- (a) the scope, planning and staffing of the audit, including requirements for rotation of the lead audit partner as required under Canadian independence standards;
- (b) the Auditor's materiality threshold for the audit;
- (c) the assessment by the Auditor of significant audit risk, critical accounting policies and practices used by the Corporation, alternative treatments of financial information within generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and ramifications of the use of such alternative disclosures and treatments, and any matters on which the Auditor consulted with its specialists;
- (d) any material written communications between the Auditor and senior management, such as any management letter or schedule of unadjusted differences;
- (e) whether or not the Auditor is satisfied with the quality and effectiveness of financial recording procedures and systems and internal controls and financial management, and any audit procedures undertaken by the Auditor due to material weaknesses in internal controls;

- (f) the Auditor's report on the financial statements;
- (g) whether or not the Auditor has received the full co-operation of senior management and other employees of the Corporation and any difficulties encountered in the course of the audit work, any restrictions imposed on the scope of activities or access to requested information, any significant disagreements with senior management and their response;
- (h) the items required to be communicated to the Committee under the Canadian authoritative guidance; and
- (i) any illegal act that has been observed.

5. Review of the Audit Plan

The Committee will discuss with the Auditor the nature of an audit and the responsibility assumed by the Auditor when conducting an audit under generally accepted auditing standards. The Committee will review a summary of the Auditor's audit plan for each audit and any significant changes to the audit plan.

6. Internal Audit

If the Corporation creates an internal audit function, or engages a third party provider of internal audit services, then the Committee will:

- (a) recommend to the Board the appointment of the internal auditor or third party firm;
- (b) annually review and approve the internal audit department charter and audit plan;
- (c) review the effectiveness of the internal audit function; and
- (d) meet quarterly with the internal auditor and with management to discuss reports on internal audit activities and findings and the effectiveness of the internal control procedures established for the Corporation.

7. Review of Financial Statements

The Committee will review and discuss with senior management and the Auditor the annual audited financial statements, together with the Auditor's report thereon, and the interim financial statements, before recommending them for approval by the Board. The Committee will also review and discuss with senior management and the Auditor management's discussion and analysis relating to the annual audited financial statements and interim financial statements.

In conducting its review of the financial statements and related management's discussion and analysis, the Committee will:

- (a) consider the quality of, and not just the acceptability of, the accounting principles, the reasonableness of senior management's judgments and estimates that have a significant effect upon the financial statements, and the clarity of the disclosures in the financial statements;
- (b) discuss any analyses prepared by senior management or the Auditor that set out significant financial reporting issues and judgments made in connection with the preparation of the financial statements, including analyses of the effects of alternative GAAP;

- (c) discuss the effect of off-balance sheet transactions, arrangements, obligations (including contingent liabilities) and other relationships with unconsolidated entities or other persons that may have a material current or future effect on the Corporation's financial condition, changes in financial condition, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures, capital resources, or significant components of revenues and expenses;
- (d) consider any changes in accounting practices or policies and their impact on financial statements of the Corporation;
- (e) discuss with senior management, the Auditor and, if necessary, legal counsel, a report from senior management describing any litigation, claim or other contingency, including tax assessments, that could have a material effect upon the financial position of the Corporation, and the manner in which these matters have been disclosed in the financial statements;
- (f) discuss with senior management and the Auditor any correspondence with regulators or governmental agencies, employee complaints or published reports that raise material issues regarding the Corporation's financial statements or accounting policies or other matters;
- (g) consider its discussions with the Auditors set out in item D.4 "Communications with the Auditors" above; and
- (h) consider any other matter which in its judgment should be taken into account in reaching its recommendation to the Board concerning the approval of the financial statements.

8. Review of Other Information

The Committee will review:

- (a) all earnings news releases and other news releases containing financial information. The Committee will also review the use of "pro forma" or "adjusted" non-GAAP information in such news releases and financial information. Such review may consist of a general discussion of the types of information to be disclosed or the types of presentations to be made;
- (b) all other financial statements of the Corporation that require approval by the Board before they are released to the public, including, without limitation, financial statements for use in Core Documents (as defined in the Corporation's Disclosure and Insider Trading Policy) and financial statements required by regulatory authorities;
- (c) disclosures made to the Committee by the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") and Chief Financial Officer ("CFO") during their certification process for applicable securities law filings about any significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of the Corporation's internal control over financial reporting which are reasonably likely to adversely affect the Corporation's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information, and any fraud involving senior management or other employees who have a significant role in the Corporation's internal control over financial reporting;
- (d) current and expected future compliance by the Corporation and its subsidiaries with covenants under all financing agreements and regulatory requirements;

- (e) the controls and procedures that have been adopted by the Corporation to confirm that material information about the Corporation and its subsidiaries that is required to be disclosed under applicable law or stock exchange rules is disclosed; and
- (f) the adequacy of the internal controls and procedures that have been adopted by the Corporation to safeguard assets from loss and unauthorized use and to verify the accuracy of the financial records. This review will include a comparable review of the adequacy of the internal controls and procedures adopted by any third party with whom the Corporation has contracted and whose duties include the collection of monies and preparation of financial information.

9. Relations with Senior Management and other Board Committees

The Committee will periodically meet privately with senior management to discuss any areas of concern to the Committee or senior management. The Committee will meet periodically with the CFO without other members of management present.

The Committee will provide input to the CCG Committee on the competence and performance of the CFO. The Committee will recommend to the Board, jointly with the CCG Committee, the appointment or removal of the CFO. The Committee will discuss with the CFO the competence and performance of other key financial personnel.

The Committee will pre-approve the hiring by the Corporation of any partners or employees or former partners or employees of the Auditor.

Members of the Committee will consult with the Disclosure Committee when requested in connection with making materiality determinations relating to the Corporation's disclosure obligations.

10. Risk Management

The Committee will oversee the Corporation's risk assessment and management function and establish a common understanding with management regarding the risk capacity, risk-taking philosophy and approach to determining the appropriate balance to risk and reward for the Corporation and its subsidiaries. The Committee will:

- (a) review and discuss the policies and practices adopted by senior management to prioritize, monitor and manage the significant financial risk exposures of the Corporation, including currency, interest rate, credit and market risks and the steps management has taken to monitor and manage such risks;
- (b) review and discuss with senior management the Corporation's significant non-financial risk exposures, including strategic, operational, regulatory, reputational and business risk exposures of the Corporation and the steps management has taken to monitor and manage such risks;
- (c) annually review the Corporation's insurance coverage and deductible levels;
- (d) review and evaluate the Corporation's susceptibility to fraud and corruption and management's processes for identifying and managing the risks of fraud and corruption;

- (e) review and evaluate cybersecurity risks and management's cybersecurity policies and practices in the context of the Corporation's risk profile; and
- (f) at least quarterly, review a report from senior management with respect to emerging risks and changes in the Corporation's risk exposures, and management's activities to assess, manage and control such risks.

11. Taxation Matters

The Committee will review with senior management the status of taxation matters of the Corporation. The Committee will also review a report from senior management confirming that the Corporation has withheld or collected and remitted all amounts required to be withheld or collected and remitted by it in respect of any taxes, levies, assessments, reassessments and other charges payable to any governmental authority.

12. Conduct and Ethics

On a quarterly basis, the Committee Chair will review all expenses incurred by the Chair of the Board and the CEO and will confirm that the Chair of the Board and CFO review all expenses incurred by the other directors.

The Committee will review with the CEO, the CFO and the Auditor the methods used to establish and monitor the Corporation's policies with respect to unethical or illegal activities by employees that may have a material impact on the financial statements.

13. Complaints Procedure

The Committee will review the procedures established in the Corporation's Integrity Program for the receipt, retention and follow-up of complaints received by the Corporation regarding accounting, internal controls, disclosure controls or auditing matters and for the confidential, anonymous submission of concerns by employees of the Corporation regarding such matters.

14. Reporting

The Committee will report to the Board after each meeting with respect to its activities and recommendations to the Board.

E. MEETINGS

Subject to the Corporation's by-laws and articles and the requirements under the Canada Business Corporations Act:

1. Scheduling

The Committee will meet as frequently as it determines is necessary to fulfill its responsibilities, which will be not less than four times a year. A meeting of the Committee may be called by the Committee Chair, the Chair of the Board, the CEO, the CFO, any Committee member or the Corporation's Auditor.

Meetings will be held at a location determined by the Committee Chair, or may be held entirely by electronic means at the discretion of the Committee Chair.

2. Notice

Notice of the time and place of each meeting will be given to each member either by telephone or other electronic means not less than 48 hours before the time of the meeting. Meetings may be held at any time without notice if all of the members have waived or are deemed to have waived notice of the meeting. A member participating in a meeting without objection will be deemed to have waived notice of the meeting.

3. Agenda

The Committee Chair will preside as Chair of each meeting and will be primarily responsible for establishing the agenda for each meeting and lead discussion on meeting agenda items. Prior to each Committee meeting, the Chair will discuss agenda items with the CEO and CFO. Any member may propose the inclusion of items on the agenda, request the presence of or a report by any member of senior management, or at any meeting raise subjects that are not on the agenda for the meeting. At each meeting of the Committee, the Committee will approve by resolution the agenda for such meeting.

4. Distribution of Information

The Committee Chair will instruct management to distribute to Committee members, an agenda and properly prepared meeting materials in advance of each meeting to allow members sufficient time to review and consider the matters to be discussed.

5. Attendance and Participation

Each member is expected to attend all meetings. A member may participate by electronic means, telephone or other communication facility that permits all members to hear each other or otherwise communicate with each other during the meeting. A member participating in a meeting by such means shall be deemed to be present at the meeting.

6. Quorum

A majority of members will constitute a quorum for any meeting of the Committee.

7. Voting and Approval

At meetings of the Committee, each member will be entitled to one vote and questions will be decided by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes, the Committee Chair will not have a second or casting vote in addition to his or her original vote.

8. Procedures

Procedures for Committee meetings will be determined by the Committee Chair unless otherwise determined by the by-laws of the Corporation or a resolution of the Committee or the Board.

9. Transaction of Business

The powers of the Committee may be exercised at a meeting where a quorum is present in person or by telephone or other electronic means, or by resolution in writing signed by all members entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of the Committee (including in counterparts, by facsimile or other electronic signature).

10. Absence of Chair

In the absence of the Committee Chair at a meeting of the Committee, the members in attendance must select one of them to act as chair of that meeting.

11. Secretary

The Committee may appoint one of its members or any other person to act as secretary.

12. Minutes of Meetings

The secretary appointed for the meeting by the Committee Chair will keep minutes of the proceedings of the Committee and the Committee Chair will cause him or her to circulate copies of the minutes to each member on a timely basis.

13. In-Camera Sessions

The Committee shall hold an in-camera session without any management present at each meeting of the Committee. The Committee shall also meet with the Auditor and internal auditor, if any, independent of management, as necessary but not less than quarterly.

F. REMOVAL AND VACANCIES

A director appointed by the Board to the Committee shall be a member of the Committee until removed or replaced or until his or her resignation. Any member may be removed and replaced at any time by the Board and will automatically cease to be a member as soon as the member ceases to meet the qualifications set out above. The Board will fill vacancies on the Committee by appointment from among qualified members of the Board. If a vacancy exists on the Committee, the remaining members will exercise all of its powers so long as a quorum remains in office.

G. ASSESSMENT

At least annually, the CCG Committee will review the effectiveness of the Committee in fulfilling its responsibilities and duties as set out in this Charter and in a manner consistent with the mandate adopted by the Board.

H. REVIEW AND DISCLOSURE

The Committee will review this Charter at least annually and submit it to the CCG Committee together with any proposed amendments. The CCG Committee will review the Charter and submit it to the Board for approval with such further amendments as it deems necessary and appropriate.

This Charter will be posted on the Corporation's website and the annual report of the Corporation will state that this Charter is available on the website or is available in print to any shareholder who requests a copy.

I. ACCESS TO OUTSIDE ADVISORS AND RECORDS

The Committee may retain any outside advisor at the expense of the Corporation at any time and has the authority to determine any such advisor's fees and other retention terms.

The Committee, and any outside advisors retained by it, will have access to all records and information relating to the Corporation which it deems relevant to the performance of its duties. The Committee will have the authority to discuss with management of the Corporation, senior staff of the Corporation and the Auditor, such accounts, records and other matters as any member of the Committee considers necessary and appropriate.
